Discussion Questions

1. There are some who object to phrases such as “living in adultery.” Use Romans 6 and other Scriptures to show that the concept is real and the consequences are dire.
2. What do we learn about baptism from this chapter?
3. How is the word “walk” used figuratively in the Bible? What other passages demonstrate that the Christian must “walk” a particular way?
4. Paul has much to say about what Christians know (or should know). Discuss what he teaches about our knowledge in verses 3, 6, 9, and 16.
5. Examine the contrasts presented by the inspired apostle in Romans 6:23 – wages versus gift, and death versus eternal life.
